III. Character: Membership in the National Honor Society is not based solely on outstanding scholarship and leadership, but also requires outstanding character. Character includes behavior both in school and outside of school. According to the By-laws of the SHG Aristotelian Chapter of the National Honor Society, violations of criminal law or school regulations can result in dismissal of a member. National Honor Society ideals include: appropriate language, no unexcused absences, avoiding tardiness, being in dress code, exemplifying good classroom/hallway behavior, and academic integrity and honesty in all your work.

Please know that in completing this application, you are claiming to represent these ideals. Ask yourself if your character truly reflects these values. Only complete the rest of this application if you feel that your behavior, both in and outside of the school setting, honestly qualifies you to be a National Honor Society student.
