YOU ARE INVITED!!! More Opportunities to Pray the Rosary at SHG Chapel! April 9th through April 26th. The Rosary Prayer schedule at SHG has been expanded during the month of April to include Monday and Tuesday mornings of each week, in addition to the normal Thursday mornings at 7:20am. In addition, each Monday in April, (following Spring Break), will be designated for praying the Rosary in a different language—Spanish (April 9th), French (April 16th), and German (April 23rd)! The shared experience of praying the Rosary in different languages can help us recognize the beauty of other languages and cultures and enhance the collective prayer experience. Students, faculty, and staff are welcome to attend and experience the beauty and mystery of the Rosary much like the Dominicans. What a great way to celebrate the Easter Season!

CAMPUS MINISTRY

- OP TEEN- will meet TODAY after school in room 108! All are welcome
- SENIORS are once again reminded that the required 20 yearly service hours must be submitted BY TODAY. Freshmen, sophomore, and junior service hours must be submitted BY Tuesday, May 1st. Please check Renweb under "Family Information," look for YOUR specific name, and then go to the "service hours" tab to check your current status.

A Sangamon County Kids Bicentennial Campaign APRIL 16 – APRIL 27

Your Sangamon County student will be collecting pennies and donations in their classrooms to bring an important piece of history back to Illinois for our bicentennial birthday bash!

Proceeds from the penny drive will be used purchase the historic document that certified that Abraham Lincoln could begin his career as a lawyer in Springfield, Illinois. The artifact documents that Abraham Lincoln obtained this approval because of his "good moral character."

Let's celebrate this legacy and make character count (in pennies!)

Want to give the kids a boost?

Checks can be made payable to the "Illinois Proud Penny Drive".

Deposits can be made at any Bank of Springfield location.

Participating students and schools will have the chance to win prizes and bring the historic document to be on display at their school!

For more information visit www.ilproudpenny.com or call State Representative Sara Wojcicki Jimenez' office at 217-782-0044. Campaign partners include Bank of Springfield, Illinois Bicentennial Commission, Mid-West Family Broadcasting and Pease's at Bunn Gourmet.

Break out the brooms, rakes, gloves, and bags. It's time for 2018 Spring Cleaning.

This year we are working hard to get as many groups signed up to help clean up the Parks and Shores, surrounding areas of Lake Springfield.

Mark this date down on your Calendar.

Saturday May 5th is the Annual Lake Clean Up. We are asking everyone to meet at the Motor Boat Club to pick up trash bags and area assignment before dispersing around the Lake to Clean up our Community and keep our Lake Beautiful.

Will you, or your organization Help?

Great opportunity for Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Company Teams and Residents to come together this one time a year. Roll up your sleeves and let's Spring Clean.

Saturday May 5th from 9am- Noon:

Meet at the Motor Boat Club.
17 Club Area, Springfield, IL. 62712

Together, let's do some Spring Cleaning.
