

Application for Sister M. Paul McCaughey and Father Robert Erickson Scholarship

More than twenty-five years ago, when Sacred Heart-Griffin welcomed its first classes as the new co-educational Catholic high school, Sr. M. Paul was principal and Fr. Erickson was assistant principal. We are aware that it was their leadership, vision and courage as principals of Sacred Heart Academy and Griffin High School, as well as their leadership positions at the new SHG, that helped to bring about our school. We celebrate that Sacred Heart-Griffin has provided "Academic Excellence in a Community of Faith". To honor these outstanding educational leaders, SHG is establishing a $1,000 Sr. M. Paul McCaughey and Fr. Robert Erickson Scholarship to be awarded to an incoming senior who has demonstrated leadership, vision and courage during their three years at SHG. The recipient of this scholarship will have $1,000 applied to their tuition for the 2019-2020 school year.
