

Sacred Heart-Griffin High School
English Summer Reading List
Summer of 2025

SHG encourages all students to read during the summer break. If, however, a student is in a section of English that requires summer reading, then that student must also complete assigned reading during the summer before the start of his or her upcoming English class. The master list for all English courses is found below. Please disregard any list from a prior year. It is recommended that students take notes on the material so as to be prepared for testing during the first week of class.
